Careers in Translation

Wednesday
November 2, 2022

Time: 12-1:30pm

Location: OPTI 422

Are you interested in using your language skills in a future profession? Curious to learn how to begin a career in translation?

Come hear two seasoned professionals discuss their academic and professional experiences in translation. Learn how to leverage your language and communication skills on a global, competitive market.

About the speakers:

Elisabeth Jaquette is Executive Director of the American Literary Translators Association. She is also a translator from Arabic; her translation of Minor Detail by Adania Shibli was a finalist for the National Book Awards and longlisted for the International Booker Prize.

Ellen Elias-Bursac is Interim President of the American Translators Association. She has been translating novels and non-fiction by Bosnian, Croatian, and Serbian writers since the 1980s. Her book Translating Evidence and Interpreting Testimony at a War Crimes Tribunal: Working in a Tug-of-War was given the Mary Zirin Prize in 2015.
